

Immigrant PALS

(Parents as Literacy Supporters)

Immigrant speaking permanent resident families with children born between January 1 and December 31, 2017 or January 1 and December 31, 2016 are welcome to join us for 8 sessions of fun and learning.

Parents/caregivers will learn how to help their children get ready for school and will have time to work together with them in fun, supportive ways during the sessions.

1. ABCs and Learning
2. Print in Our Community
3. Storybook Reading
4. Riddles, Raps and Rhymes
5. Very early Reading and Math

This program helps parents play and learn with their children for:

- Self-esteem
- Social, emotional and cognitive development
- Seeing parents as teachers
- Role of literacy in their own lives

When: 8 sessions (twice a month) Monday OR Wednesday 12:30pm-2:30pm Where: Sweeney Neighbourhood Centre, 33355 Bevan Ave. Abbotsford, BC

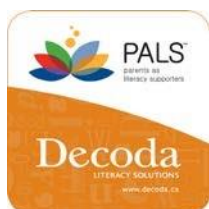

Please Note:

- Attendance at all the sessions is required
- Sessions will be taught in English and translated in other language
- Learning materials will be given at each session
- There is no charge for this program

Families must register to attend this program. There is space for 15 families only, so please register early!

(All safety protocols will be followed)

Call: Emmaline or Neda at (778) 880-8554 to register

Funded by:

Finance par :

Immigration, Refugees
and Citizenship Canada

Immigration, Réfugiés
et Citoyenneté Canada